KLEVR in the Classroom

“Google Earth VR was a perfect introduction for using VR technology in the classroom because their projects were geared toward aligning business opportunities with social needs,” said Oakes. “Google Earth VR allowed students to think about the scope of their projects from a bird's eye view.”

BAY AREA PRIDE

50 YEARS OF LGBTQ HISTORY, POLITICS, AND CULTURE

August 19 - December 20
Special Collections Exhibit Hall,
5th Floor, SJSU King Library

The exhibit highlights LGBTQ history, politics, and culture primarily in the Bay Area over the last 50 years—featuring materials from SJSU Special Collections & Archives. This exhibit includes original photographs from the Ted Sahl Archives: A Collection of Gay and Lesbian History, as well as materials from the Billy DeFrank LGBT Community Center Papers, Mark Porsche Papers, High Tech Gays Records, The Ladder Periodical Collection, and Lesbian Feminist Publications.
