BAY AREA PRIDE

50 YEARS OF LGBTQ HISTORY,
POLITICS, AND CULTURE

August 19 - December 20
Special Collections Exhibit Hall,
5th Floor, SJSU King Library

The exhibit highlights LGBTQ history, politics, and culture primarily in the Bay Area over the last 50 years—featuring materials from SJSU Special Collections & Archives. This exhibit includes original photographs from the Ted Sahl Archives: A Collection of Gay and Lesbian History, as well as materials from the Billy DeFrank LGBT Community Center Papers, Mark Porsche Papers, High Tech Gays Records, The Ladder Periodical Collection, and Lesbian Feminist Publications.

Two fabulous exhibits are now on display on the fifth floor of the SJSU King Library. Be sure to check out the details of both of these exhibits in this issue of the Academic Gateway.

COMING SOON!

In collaboration with the San Jose Multicultural Artist Guild, the 13th Annual Art of Remembrance Altar Exhibit will take place on the second and fifth floor of the SJSU King Library and will highlight traditional and contemporary visual arts by local artists. The exhibit reception will be on Thursday, October 10, 2019 from 6:30 p.m. - 9 p. m. on the fifth floor gallery at the SJSU King Library. There will be music by Panaderos and entertainment by Teatro Familia Aztlan. Tamales, pan de muerto and hot chocolate will be served.
