

IN OUR OWN WORDS

San José State is seeking documentation of your personal experiences of the COVID-19 pandemic for the project In Our Own Words: A Multilingual Public History of the COVID-19 Pandemic in the Bay Area. Sharing your personal story can be part of uniting our community in the present, and provide valuable insight for generations looking back on this time from the future. The history of this moment will be incomplete without evidence of how it is impacting you. Will you entrust your story to us?

Open to all Bay Area residents
