

Dear Colleague, learn about upcoming events, discover library services, and more!

Michael Meth, University Library Dean

Tue, Sep 5, 2023

Mark Your Calendars

King Library's 20th Anniversary Celebration

Join us to celebrate the 20th anniversary of the King Library. It's a wonderful occasion to come together and commemorate the vibrant collaboration between San José State University and the City of San José in providing outstanding library services. The community celebration will feature remarks from local leaders and SJSU dignitaries, live performances, giveaways, and more. This event is open to everyone.

Wed., Sept. 20, 2023

1:30 p.m. - 2:30 p.m.

King Library

#KingLibrary20

Visit Our Website

University Scholar Series

Hosted by Provost Vincent J. Del Casino, Jr., this series showcases the important research, scholarly, and creative activities of SJSU faculty members. Join us at 12 p.m. in Rm. 225 at SJSU King Library or online via Zoom.

- Dr. Travis D. Boyce, Dept. of African American Studies, Sept. 13
- Dr. Yu Chen, School of Information Systems and Technology, Oct. 18
- Dr. Katherine Wilkinson, Dept. of Biological Sciences, Nov. 15

Open Access Unconference

Oct. 25, 2023

The theme of this year's International Open Access Week is "Community over Commercialization." Join King Library for a collaborative unconference on October 25 to imagine new ways of sharing scholarship and knowledge without barriers.

Records Management Workshop

Oct. 27, 2023

10 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Rm. 213, SJSU King Library/Zoom

Join University Archivist Carli V. Lowe for an interactive workshop to learn about records

Annual Author & Artist Celebration

Due Feb. 14, 2024

Have you published a book or exhibited a significant work of art during the 2023 calendar year? Submit your work by February 12, 2024 at 5 p.m. and celebrate your management processes for your everyday work.

accomplishments with us at the Annual Author & Artist celebration. More details coming soon!

Register Now

Submit Now

Art, Culture, & More: Visit a Library Exhibit

Stop by the library and visit one of our many exhibits! Hosted in various spaces throughout the library are a variety of educational, cultural, and thought-provoking exhibits to help our communities learn and grow.

Open Call for Proposals: DiNapoli Gallery

Display your artwork at the SJSU King Library's Jennifer and Philip DiNapoli Gallery (second floor) by submitting an exhibit proposal. Open to university affiliates and community members.

Support for the Classroom

Faculty & Staff Services

The library provides numerous resources and services designed for faculty and staff. Examples include your liaison librarians, online tutorials, open access publishing support, and open educational resources and library eTextbooks for your courses. To learn more, visit our website.

Tech Training Workshops

Are your students using or learning software programs like SPSS, Qualtrics, Microsoft Excel, or Adobe Express? The library's Technology Training Center, located on the fourth floor, provides workshops on these products and more for you and your students.

Adobe Training & Curricula Support

Did you know SJSU faculty and staff have FREE access to Adobe products? Our Adobe Trainer and Instructional Designer, Raymond Lam, provides training and one-on-one support to help you apply and integrate these tools in the classroom to support student success and digital literacies.

Help Us Improve Your Library

Join the Library Feedback Group

We are thrilled to share our new and improved library website! We value your input and are looking for interested staff and faculty to join our SJSU King Library Feedback Group to aid us in improving our digital and physical experiences including collections, services, and facilities.

Virtual Reality Advisory Board

We are seeking interested faculty and staff to join the SJSU's Virtual Reality Advisory Board. If you are new to VR or an avid user, join our board to discuss and share ideas, challenges, and new developments impacting the VR community and its intersection in higher ed.

Stay Informed

Increase the Reach of Your Scholarship

Working on a publication? SJSU King Library has read-and-publish agreements with major publishers, allowing us to publish open access (OA) with reduced or no article processing charges (APCs). Publishing OA improves the reach of your scholarship by removing paywalls.

Digital Humanities x Ethnic Studies

San José State is a founding partner of the new Digital Humanities @ California State Universities, or DH@CSU, consortium. Funded by a grant from the Digital Ethnic Futures Consortium, sponsored by the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, DH@CSU seeks to support the critical intersection of digital humanities and ethnic studies.

Find more information at tiny.sjsu.edu/openaccess or contact your subject librarian.

Learn more about the grant and how you can engage with the project [here \[PDF\]](#).

Keep up with the latest library news!

SJSU | KING LIBRARY

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.
One Washington Square
San José, CA 95192-0028
library.sjsu.edu

Follow Us

© 2023 Copyright

Privacy Policy | Preference Center